	STIP AND [PROP] ORD TO MODIFY CERTIFICATION BRIEFING SCHEDULE

1	WHEREAS, Defendants and Plaintiff Quezada agreed that Defendant had priority in taking
2	Plaintiff Quezada's deposition before taking Defendant's Person Most Knowledgeable deposition;
3	WHEREAS, Defendant completed the deposition of Plaintiff Quezada on October 18,
4	2010.
5	WHEREAS, after entering into the priority agreement respecting Plaintiff Quezada,
6	counsel for Quezada assumed the representation of Plaintiffs Colon Vigil and Fonseca.
7	WHEREAS, Defendants asserted that the deposition priority agreement applied to all
8	Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs disagreed with that contention, but attempted to work cooperatively to
9	schedule all of the necessary depositions.
0	WHEREAS, the Court has granted one prior sixty day extension of the class certification
1	briefing schedule to accommodate the parties' difficulties in scheduling the Vigil, Fonseca and
2	Colon depositions. Defendant completed the depositions of Plaintiffs Vigil and Fonseca on March
13	3 and 4. Plaintiff Colon has withdrawn from the position of representative plaintiff due to a
4	medical condition that impaired his ability to perform the functions of a class representative.
5	WHEREAS, Plaintiff unsuccessfully attempted to schedule the depositions of Defendant
6	pursuant to Rule 30(b)(6) on mutually agreeable dates and ultimately served deposition notices for
17	such deposition on the unilaterally selected dates of March 15 and 16, 2011 in order to complete

17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	this essential discovery in suffucient time to meet the impending deadline for the filing of Plaintiff's motion for class certification on April 15, 2010. Defendant's counsel has served written objections to such deposition notices on multiple grounds including his unavailability on the noticed dates and the noticed location for the deposition, San Francisco. WHEREAS, Defendant's counsel has previously been unable to commit to mutually agreeable deposition dates due to the pendency of hotly contested motions and a trial set to begin in an unrelated matter in San Francisco on May 2, 2011. Based on the foregoing, Defendant requires a brief further interval in order to prepare for and submit to deposition by Plaintiff.

1	NOW THEREFORE, the parties hereby request, based on the showing of good cause
2	discussed herein, that Plaintiff Colon be dismissed without prejudice as a named Plaintiff and that
3	the certification briefing schedule be continued forty-five days as follows:
4	(1)	Certification Motion Filing Date: no later than May 31, 2011;
5	(2)	Opposition Filing Date: no later than July 29, 2011;
6	(3)	Reply Deadline: no later than August 29, 2011;
7	(4)	Hearing Date: Sept. 12 , 2011 at 9:00 a.m.; and 30
8	(6)	Further Case Management Conference: Sept. 26 , 2011 at 10:30 a.m.
9	All counsel agree that the only change in the status of the case since the Case Management
10	Conference has been the Court's prior sixty day extension of the briefing schedule and further
11	discovery as described above. This is the second request for a continuance of dates requested by
12	the parties.
